How did you hear about us?

We at Angela Brown Tutoring (ABT) take great pains to ensure safety procedures and practices are used at all times during class activities. No harmful or dangerous materials are used other than normal classroom materials. Parents and family members will indemnify and hold harmless Angela Brown Tutoring, Los Caballeros, 24 Carrots Catering, their officers, employees and volunteers from any and all claims, liabilities and damages arising from participation in classroom activities and projects.

ABT has my permission to authorize medical treatment in the event of an emergency should the parent be unavailable.

Angela Brown Tutoring is offering classes at a private club with an open door policy. Members may arrive and leave the facility at their own leisure. ABT is not a licensed child care facility, but a tutoring agency offering supplemental academic classes. Supervision, transportation and care of minor children outside of specified class times are the responsibility of the parent. If it is the desire of the parent that a child remain at the facility until picked up by a designated person, the responsibility for this rests solely with the parent and child. Angela Brown Tutoring and Los Caballeros will not be held responsible should a child leave the premises without permission. For those students joining the Los Cab Afternoon Summer Camp, ABT Teachers will walk them to the appropriate check-in location.

I have read and understand the above waiver and sign it voluntarily.
